". Finally, Carole Delga answered us to the question of her "possible candidacy for the presidential election, as a member of the Socialist Party having had the best score in the regional elections" that "No I will not be a presidential candidate of the republic of 2022, but I am indeed the President of the regions of France "

"THE HEALTH SAFETY OF PUPILS, TEACHERS AND REGIONAL STAFF IS OUR PRIORITY OF THE BACK TO SCHOOL » SAID CAROLE DELGA-----

Carole Delga took note of the announcements of the Minister of National Education, Jean-Michel Blanquer, this morning, and ensures that all the Presidents of Regions will take their full part in its implementation. "The health safety of high school students, teachers and regional staff is our priority for this new school year. As such, the Presidents of the Regions would like to see local elected representatives more involved in decisions. Regarding the organization of the vaccination campaign in high schools, the regions were very proactive, and this from the end of July in order to better inform parents and organize it, in conjunction with the Rectorates and regional agencies of health. On the financial question, in particular the acquisition of CO2 sensors and the additional costs relating to health security, the Regions of France have advanced the money. However, we are still awaiting a response from the Government on our request for compensation. There are therefore still efforts to be made and intensified on the part of the executive vis-à-vis the regions and I expect a lot from the meeting with the Prime Minister, Jean Castex, scheduled for Monday, September 13. "

Carole Delga is in line with the presidents of the Regions of France who preceded her and their role as leader of the largest French territories "Our desire is undeniable to redress our country and all the presidents of regions have done so, namely to decentralize the vision closer to the reality on the ground, and a stronger society. We all have these points in common, and I trust the intelligence of the presidential candidates. "-----

Francois Bonneau, Vice President of the Regions of France, for his part added the dimension of the values ??of the Republic, to the pact of the Regions working in tandem with the French State "We have frankly a qualitative step because we can have shared objectives on the field, and this is one of the conditions for putting it into play. The values ??of the republic of equal opportunities and an improvement in the chances of progress in education is essential "-----

QUESTION USPA: You who chair the Region Occitania, which is the first region to have a green budget, and is this still the case and if yes, what are the other aspects outside the positive Energy Act concerned by this green budget?

ANSWER CAROLE DELGA-----

"Yes indeed, we were the first green energy region and we are continuing with the green pact the green new deal based on that of the EU, and on sustainable housing and we are going to develop and our region is in this same dynamic all the trips green, and because a hydrogen has with pilots and trans has Hydrogen in France, and alas they are financed only 1/3 by the state while it is the reverse in regions like in Germany, and where it is the 'reverse to have trains in hydrogen' In France 1/3 and financed by the state and the rest by the region, it would be necessary to reverse this ratio as in Germany.

QUESTION USPA: Will you be a candidate for the 2022 presidential election, as a member of the scientist party with the highest score of 58.5% in the pretense elections in June 2021?-----

ANSWER CAROLE DELGA: No, I will not be a candidate in the 2022 presidential election and I am the president of the Regions of France.
